MEET OUR SENIOR INSTRUCTORS

Kevin Story: PGA Lead Golf Professional

Academy Director

A Central Oregon native Kevin pursues an active interest in teaching golf and growing the game. Kevin leads our Golf Academy & Junior golf program on the Resort, teaches the COCC credit golf college class and is the assistant coach for the Ridgeview HS men's golf team. His passion is creating excitement for Golfers! Kevin has an easy to understand instructional style with a relaxed approach focusing on the fundamentals within the Golf Swing.

Tam Bronkey: PGA Senior Golf Instructor,

Tam has given quality instruction for over 25 years and at Eagle Crest for 12 years. Tam's students enjoy his friendly approach, use of video technology, and comprehensive teaching style. Tam is a graduate of and former University of Oregon varsity player, twice a current course record holder, and played on the PGA Tour as a qualifier in the Northern Trust L.A. Open in 2001. His low tournament round is 64 in a SCPGA event in 2004. In 2008 Tam captured the Crosswater Invitational. Tam serves as the Head Men's Golf Coach for Redmond High School. Tam prides himself in helping students make necessary changes to their game without altering their unique swing style.

Ron Buerger: PGA Director of all Golf Operations

As a regional leader in game improvement Ron has been helping Central Oregon golfers for 28 years. Joining Eagle Crest in 1991 Ron oversees all golf operations at Eagle Crest Resort. Ron's students enjoy his personable style and keen ability to get to core issues of problem causing swing flaws. Ron has successfully coached High School golf for the past 17 years and currently coaches two of the state's highest rated junior players. With extensive experience in various competitive levels Ron understands the ins and outs of game planning for success and can help successfully navigate the tournament terrain. Ron uses a practical approach to preserving a student's strengths while incorporating improved technique for better results.
